Country Club Tasmania is looking for a

Chef de Cuisine

If you'd like the experience of working with Tasmania's freshest produce and freshest talent, apply for this great position.

This is an opportunity for a senior chef to take charge of food production as a chef de cuisine leading the kitchen brigade in our production kitchen, conference and banqueting and Basement Café (staff dining).

The successful applicant will have multi-outlet experience in a 4.5 to 5 star hotel kitchen environment, show leadership, have well-developed communication skills, the ability to train other chefs, have excellent time management skills and will work with the executive chef, Brad French, to set and achieve budgetary targets.

Sounds tempting doesn't it? If you've got the silky smooth skills, serve us up an application!
